

I request that you do not remove the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets. For the American people to be assured of accurate news reporting, they must have the option of turning to competing outlets for information. With a monopoly of media comes a monopoly of opinion, which is a blatant contradiction of the meaning behind "democracy."